"Is There Racial Prejudice at State College?" A panel of top flight students and faculty will delve into such controversial sub-topics as fraternity-sorority relationships as they discuss the problem at the Golden West YMCA, 333 Eucalyptus drive, Stonestown.

Student 'Y' Sponsors Panel On Racial Prejudice Monday

"Is there racial prejudice at S. F. State College?" will be the topic of a panel discussion sponsored by the Student "Y," 7:30 p. m., Monday, Nov. 15.

Participating in the discussion will be students Polly Spencer, Barbara Holaday, Bobbi Morrison, Willie Brown, Oresse Elmore, George Katayama, Alice Pappas, Dick Laine, Jerry Lucey, and Audrey Fagnani; and faculty members Mrs. Polly Glyer, Mr. David Freeman, Mr. Donald Biggs, Mr. George Gibson, and Mr. John Clark.

Included as sub-topics to be discussed will be:

1—Do sororities and fraternities at S. F. State encourage racial prejudice?

2—Are race relations at S. F. State on a quasi-sincere basis and do students get along because it is socially accepted to do so? If so, are students aware of this?

3—Is racial prejudice shown in: (a) the classrooms, (b) at social activities, (c) in employment opportunities at faculty and secretarial staff levels.

The panel discussion will be at the Golden West YMCA, 333 Eucalyptus drive, Stonestown.

A preliminary discussion will be held during an Open House at Font Hall, Sunday, Nov. 17, from 3 to 5:30 p. m. Many panel members and other interested persons will be present to discuss the issue in question.

Bert Phillips, panel co-ordinator, invites and urges all students to attend both the preliminary and main discussion.

695 Elect Freshman Class Officers and Reps-at-Large

Dale Christensen, Gerda Greer, and Al Esser were elected to representative-at-large posts in the general student body elections held last week.

Christensen was voted to the rep. post over 32 units, while Greer and Esser took the positions under 32 units.

Julian Kaufman was elected in the primaries as representative-at-large over 60 units.

The Freshman class elections ran concurrently with the general elections. The freshmen selected Ed Sullivan as their class president for the coming year. Working with Sullivan will be Tom Saunders, vice president, and Francyne Gallo, secretary-treasurer.

A total of 695 students voted during the elections. This number represents less than one-tenth of the student body. Of the 695 votes cast, 362 were freshman votes and 333 were a combined total of the sophomore, junior and senior classes ballots.

FLASH! FIRST CLUE TO BENCH THEFT

Some prospective Seniors have taken the Senior Bench that used to sit outside Hut T-1. Where they have taken it is not yet known.

This group has not made it hard for the Senior Class to find their bench. They are giving clues as to the whereabouts of the purloined seat.

This is the first clue: HOPE THAT YOU SENIORS LIKE THE OUTDOORS: IT'S THIRTY-THREE AND 3.3.

'Veterans Day' Observed Here

Commemoration ceremonies were held at S. F. State College last Wednesday for the millions of Americans who gave their lives "under the banner of the United States and the United Nations."

Formerly entitled Armistice Day, the day of remembrance has officially been changed to "Veterans' Day." Under the sponsorship of the Model United Nations Commission of San Francisco State College, a program, designed to express the college's gratitude to those who made the supreme sacrifice, was presented.

A color guard, composed of members of the Air Force ROTC, attended the formal ceremonies which were held in the main cafeteria. College President J. Paul Leonard addressed the student body and requested one minute of silence be observed in honor of fallen veterans.

APPLICATIONS FOR LEAVE DUE MONDAY

Applications for Sabbatical Leaves must be completed and turned in to Dean Bell's office by November 15.

Instructors who have completed six years of continuous service at S. F. State are eligible to apply. The purpose of the leave must be confined to either study, creative work or travel.

Eight instructors from S. F. State's faculty will be selected this term.

Homecoming Here Next Week

Crowning Will Launch Events

Launching Homecoming Activities for 1954 will be the crowning of the Homecoming Queen by Don Pitts, local radio personality, at the Coronation Rally in the Men's Gym at 1 p. m. on November 18.

A bonfire will be set in the student parking lot that evening at 8 o'clock. To insure enough wood for the fire a $25 cash award has been offered to the organization which gathers the most wood by November 17. Following the bonfire there will be a rally starring Ralph Manza of the Del Courtney TV show. The Players Club will present a skit.

Friday, November 18, the Homecoming game with Chico State will commence at 8 p. m. Before the game there will be a procession of the floats with the queen and her attendants leading it off.

Half-time activities will include card stunts and the judging of the floats.

The Homecoming dance in the Women's Gym following the game will conclude the week's activities. The orchestra of Walt Tolleson, featuring songstress Patty Prichard, will provide music for the dance.

Dance Tonight After Ball Game

Beta Chi Delta and the Music Federation will present "A Foggy Night" dance in the Women's Gym tonight, lasting until 1 a. m.

Music will be provided by the band of Virgil Gonsalves. Nocturne recording star and former student at S. F. State, Gonsalves played baritone saxophone for Tex Benecke.

According to Art Daniels, treasurer of Beta Chi Delta, the decorations for the dance promise to be the "best so far." An outdoor cafe scene is planned for one wall of the gym.

The dance will follow the Sacramento State-S. F. State football game to be played in Cox Stadium. Tickets, which may be purchased at the door, are priced at $1 stag and $1.50 per couple.

Queens Parade Before Rally

Twenty-four of S. F. State's loveliest girls, each hoping to win the title of Homecoming Queen of 1954, passed before the assembled members of the student body in the Men's Gym on November 9.

Amid cheers and whistles the girls were introduced by the officers of the organization which they will represent.

Voting for the queen on November 16 and 17 will be open to all male members of the student body.

An official reception will be held for all organization queens at the Homecoming Queen's suite at the Fairmont Hotel on November 18. Guests at the reception will include the Board of Directors, President Leonard, and the Deans' Committee.

Following are the nominees for Homecoming Queen and the organizations sponsoring them: Nancy Lee Barker, Psych. Club; Carol Bondshu, Alpha Phi Gamma; Betty Brown, Sophomore Class; Carole Coggins, Font Hall and Student "Y"; Barbara Deter, Delta Sigma Nu; Diane Delgado, Hui O'Aikane; Darlene Elsieck, Delta Gamma Tau; Mary Gonzales, I. R. C.; Bernice Grey, Hillel Foundation; Sylvia Hollingsworth, Music Federation; Edwina Hudson, Rec. I class; Carol Kenny, Sigma Delta Gamma; Jeanne Kessey, ROTC Lorraine Larmarsino, Tri Gamma; Lilly Malbas, Sampa-guita; Helen Paris, Kappa Twenty-three of S. F. State's Phi Gamma; Toby Reed, Sigma Beta Music Club; Sally Saunders, Alpha Zeta; Jan Skeans, Freshman Class; Patsy Spear, Alpha Omega; Marilyn Stroh, Sigma Chi Delta; Barbara Swanson, Block S and Kappa Theta; Sandy Young, Newman Club.

Tri-Gamma Cake Sale

Tri-Gamma sorority will hold a cake sale on Thursday, November 18, in front of the Women's Gym.

According to sorority president Ellene Manty, a dime will be hidden in each cake thus giving the purchaser a chance to get his money back.

The sale will start at 11 a. m.

Joint Board Meeting Hears Talk on NSA

Mr. Harry Lund, chairman of the National Students' Association (NSA), spoke to a joint session of the Board of Directors and the Board of Control on Tuesday, Nov. 9. Mr. Lund told the group that the NSA could help the students and the student body officers on an international basis.

Some examples of the NSA's assistance, Mr. Lund told the meeting, were: Working with Congressmen on the recent income tax problem which concerned students; the Student Bulletin, which suggests new ideas and answers to mutual school problems; special publications, containing information on foreign students, orientation, student courts, and so on; and helping to give and receive ideas with foreign schools.

Mr. Lund said that the regional and national meetings of the NSA help to give the representatives of each school the aspects of student activity and responsibility. Each member school pays dues to the association which help pay for its activities.

Questions concerning the association which the students asked were answered by Mr. Lund. He told them that the policy governing it was formed by the National Students' Congress, which is made up of representatives from the member colleges. But no policy is binding on the schools and no school has to accept them. They are merely recommendations.

The Creative Arts

... By ROBERT M. KLANG

This week we shall take note of some of the most important creative arts events that are soon to take place.

On Monday, November 15, at 8:30 p. m., in the Main Auditorium, Vladimir Brenner will give his second Fall piano concert. Mr. Brenner gave his first concert this semester during Dedication Week and we, as we have said before, thought he offered the Little Theatre overflow crowd some magnificent piano playing.

Mr. Brenner next Monday will play the works of Vivaldi, Bach, Corelli, Beethoven, Chopin, Debussy, Medtner, Liadow, Berg and Albeniz.

ART MOVIES

The Art Club will also sponsor its second creative arts activity of the semester next week. In AI 109 on Wednesday, November 17, at 12 noon and at 4 p. m., and on Thursday, November 18, at 12 noon, the Art Club, in conjunction with the Creative Arts Division, will present a second program of Art Movies. The films are "Gospel in Stone," "Analogy No. 1," and "Chinese Painting."

"Gospel in Stone" relates the story of the life of Christ through camera shots of sculpture in the great cathedrals of France.

"Analogy No. 1," an experimental film by Jim Davis, draws an analogy, through light imagery, between abstract patterns of nature and patterns of nature created in the studio by the artist.

The last film, "Chinese Painting," is a series of color reproductions of Chinese painting that are included in some American collections.

DRAMA PRODUCTION

The "distinctly French" play "Topaze," by Marcel Pagnol, will be the Drama Department's next play. This show, which will be presented on December 2, 3 and 4 and on December 9, 10 and 11, was especially translated for the Drama Department by "broadminded" members of S. F. State's Humanities Division. The play is under the directorship of Richard Glyer, Drama Department faculty member.

MARGARET WEBSTER

Margaret Webster, on November 19 at 8 p. m., will give a reading of some Shakespearean works in the Main Auditorium. This, many Creative Arts people think, is one of the most important events of the year.

Finally, we have something for some of you who like to think, to think about:

"The extent to which a man or woman has defined the true rhythms and melodies of life determines the extent to which that man or woman can enjoy, or create, good music."

Radio-TV Guild Televises Show

Members of the Radio-TV Guild will appear weekly before the television cameras in a closed circuit operation at John O'Connell Trade School.

According to Ed Stormer, program director of KRTG, the operation will give students practical experience in the field of television. Commercials will be the stepping stones to more complex continuity. In future weeks, other types of copy will be used.

Al Sturges, KRTG chief announcer, made the final arrangements for the operation. The hours for this on-camera experience will be from 7 until 9 o'clock Tuesday nights.

SENIORS CALL CLASS MEETING FOR TUESDAY

A meeting of the Senior class will be held Tuesday, Nov. 16, at 7:30 p. m., in the Activities room of the Administration building.

The purpose of this meeting will be to organize the Senior Class Council.

All students graduating in February or June of 1955 are invited to attend. Commencement activities, including the Senior Breakfast, Senior Picnic and Senior Ball will be discussed.

Smatter of Opinion

The following is the opinion of Mr. Stephen T. Davis, and does not necessarily represent that of the college, the Associated Students, or the Golden Gater.

By STEPHEN T. DAVIS

Unfortunately, the practice of courtesy is not as widespread as the need for it. It is a sad commentary that San Francisco State should be conspicuously deficient in this respect.

The piston-brained members of our community who speed their automobiles near and through the campus, who do not grant the right-of-way to pedestrian students, and who harass students waiting for the municipal trains, exhibit a callous disregard for their own and others' well-being. We suggest that if these automatic idiots are not susceptible to the laws of social decency, they be severely punished for their violations of those statutes which explicitly forbid the aforementioned.

The blabber-mouthed members of our community who assemble buzzard-like in the Stu-

Sports Stars in Successful Show

San Francisco State College was the scene of the annual "Sports Night," sponsored by Phi Epsilon Mu fraternity, last Friday night.

Many nationally and locally known athletic stars contributed to the program which was narrated by Bud Foster, well-known Bay Area sportscaster. Mr. Foster was presented a trophy by Bill Dorff, president of the sponsoring group, for his outstanding contributions in the field of sports commentating.

Highlighting the evening's events was the coast premier of an entirely new game, Hock-Sock, which is a combination of hockey and soccer. The exhibition was led by Marty Krum, member of the U. S. 1952 Olympic Soccer team. His team featured many other nationally known soccer stars.

Another highlight of the program was a number of aquatic acts which featured S. F. State swimming and diving stars.

Delia Muelenkamp and Barbara Stark, both members of the 1952 Olympic Swimming team, gave exhibitions of record-breaking strokes.

Other events of the evening were exhibitions of roller skating techniques by a group of skaters from Skateland, a trampoline act featuring several place winners in national trampoline competition, a tumbling act by the beginners' class at S. F. State; a speed bag punching act by Sam Slavich, the world's champion speed bag puncher; a baton twirling act by Patsy Speer; and two acrobatic dancing acts, given by the Johnson sisters and Corrine Nobel.

All proceeds from the extensive program are being used for a perpetual trophy to be awarded each year to an outstanding S. F. State athlete. This trophy will honor Dean D. J. Cox, who is largely responsible for the sports program now offered at S. F. State. Any surplus in the proceeds will be donated to the 1956 Olympic Team Fund.

Filmdom's Diana Lynn: "I think the Miracle Tip is the most modern filter... and L&M the best-tasting filter cigarette."

David Wayne, Stage & Screen: "L&Ms have the best filter of them all. Miracle Tip is right! There's nothing like it."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Davis Challenges

Editor—On the fifth of November, the vice president of the ASSFSC issued an ill-advised challenge to the students of San Francisco State. I hereby challenge that official to accept my answer in a public, informal debate on the true nature of school spirit.

The time: any school-day around noon.

The date and place: at her convenience.

STEPHEN T. DAVIS.

Favors Davis

Editor—It has been brought to my attention that Mr. Davis is receiving more criticism than praise for his well-written articles. I wish to go on record favoring his excellent writing, carefully considered opinions, and general good taste. Mr. Davis' views seem to me to be a just representation of the "intellectual minority" found in ever diminishing numbers on this campus. His antagonists might well be reminded that the diagnostician certainly has a valid place in society.

Let us hope that he does not easily tire of batting his head against a gymnasium floor, and that his commentaries continue to appear in The Gater.

JOHN DAVID LAMB.

Pleads Guilty

Editor—Student Body Vice President Alice Pappas accuses me, along with some 7000 other students, of being irresponsible.

In the next column, letter-writer Bernie Johnston pleads guilty to the charge that he is an immature, aboriginal exhibitionist.

I plead guilty to the charge of irresponsibility—if it can be understood that I am a mature and reasonable adult.

NAME WITHHELD.

Scores Seniors

Editor—It has come to my attention as a member in good standing of the Senior Class that the tradition-steeped Senior Bench has been stolen. Senior Class officers, when confronted with evidence of that fact, merely yawned, and said, in effect, "so what."

The time has come for some member of the class to protest the indifference and lack of initiative shown by our officers. Not only did they fail to move when the Freshmen challenged them to raise money for Dedication, but they have completely ignored the theft of their bench.

Last year the bench stayed buried for an entire semester until a paid employee of the Associated Students dug it up. From that time on, it sat ignominiously outside Hut T-1 until someone stole it. Our officers haven't even attempted to find a place to install the bench, let alone find the bench itself.

In the meantime, until our officers get off their . . . (deleted) . . . and start to do something, I think that I will re-enroll in school as a Freshman. Their officers, at least are breathing. NAME WITHHELD.

A Vote of Thanks

Editor—A vote of thanks from the card stunt committee praising the students who took an active part in the card stunts during the half-time of the S. F. State-Nevada game. Also, thanks to the guest spectators who filled in parts of an empty section to add to our successful stunts.

The stunts looked great and we hope that in the future the students will continue to give us their support. We would like to have the entire rooting section seated by 7:45 to avoid filing in at the last minute.

We also urge students to give their full and enthusiastic support at the Sacramento State game, November 12, and particularly at our Homecoming game with Chico State, November 19. By having a bigger rooting section with even better card stunts, we can all do our part in making this year's home games the best at S. F. State.

TOM SANCHEZ-CORREA,
Chairman of Card
Stunts Committee.

Extended Hours

Editor—Recently you published a letter from a fellow-sufferer of mine who would like to see the library open later and more frequently. Unfortunately, I think his letter was a futile gesture, not because the administration and faculty of this campus are adverse to students studying more or more effectively, but because the students don't seem to desire the change.

I have had occasion frequently this semester to use the library when it is open on week-end days and week nights, and more often than not there have been more employees on duty than there have been students studying.

SMATTER OF OPINION

dent Union, and pass several hours of the day in malicious gossip and backbiting, reveal a lack of social decency which is utterly inconsistent with their status as "educated individuals." We suggest that the groups involved be somehow isolated from the rest of the community, and treated with laryngeal disinfectants with an alum base.

Finally, there are those students whose brain cavities seem to constitute an exception to the principle in physics that nature abhors a vacuum. These intellectual virgins insist upon wasting the precious class-time allotted to their fellow-students by elaborating upon irrelevant autobiographical data, by asking questions which they would be able to answer themselves if they read their assignments, and by otherwise increasing the proverbial intimacy between their feet and their mouths.

Furthermore, the prevalent philosophy of education allows no remedy for this situation. These poor students are adjusting.

The students enrolled informally in these three groups—who are remarkable only in that they possess a phenomenal immunity to social education—seriously encumber the efforts of more mature students to make our campus a fit living-place for intelligent, sensitive human beings.

We commend the model United Nations project as one of the more substantial activities on campus this year. Its student members exhibit an intelligent awareness of issues which transcend in importance the superficial social activities of many other groups.

FULL-TIME JOBS ARE OFFERED STUDENTS

The San Francisco State College Placement Office has announced the following positions are open:

Shell Oil and Chemical Company—Interviews will be held on the S. F. State campus November 15, throughout the day, for positions open to Business Administration graduates or students who will receive their degrees within a few months. Degrees may also be in economics or related fields. These jobs are placed throughout the United States and the salaries are varied.

White Sands Proving Grounds—These positions will be limited to math, civics and chemistry graduates or students who will graduate in February or June. This is a full-time job working with guided missiles.

Additional information and appointments for interviews may be obtained in the Placement Office.

Model United Nations Will Need Support of All Here

Representatives from the United Nations headquarters in New York arrived in San Francisco last week end. They came to look over the facilities and to check the possibilities of bringing the entire U. N. here to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the organization next October.

The municipal government of San Francisco has earmarked $500,000 for this worthwhile project. Business and social dignitaries are working feverishly to bring about this plan's fruition and it seems that success is not far off.

Now that everyone has boarded the bandwagon, so to speak, let us try to review why this idea got started and how it snowballed.

As far back as last April's Model U. N. Conference at UCLA, San Francisco State College won the nod as host for next year's conference by using the idea of the birthplace of the U. N. and its tenth anniversary.

Far-seeing delegates and observers such as Sami Judah, Bert Phillips, Bob Horn, Claude Crownover, and Dale Tussing, planted the idea then that has since enjoyed citywide acclaim.

Mr. Paul Speegle, States' Radio-TV chairman and author of a column in the San Francisco News, has continually campaigned for the city legislature to provide funds for this purpose.

It has become increasingly apparent that S. F. State has taken on a new stature in civic affairs and is contributing more and more to its functions. Just two weeks ago the U. N. Charter Revision Committee chose our college as the site for their meetings.

In March we will give San Francisco a preview of what will ensue when the main body of the U. N. convenes here. S. F. State will do this by staging the Fifth Annual Model U. N. Conference which will be attended by thousands of student delegates.

This is a tremendous job we have carved out for ourselves and it will take the co-operation of the entire student body and their moral support. Because of our excellent physical facilities and the high spirit of our students, we believe S. F. State will go on to bigger and better accomplishments in the future.—J. P. M.

Intramural Notes

By ROBERT JOHNSTON

Winners of the intramural touch football individual-league tournaments were announced last Friday by James Boggan, manager of the Club League; Earnest Browning, Fraternity League manager; and Glyden Mayfield, Frosh League manager.

Larry Conover's Kappa Omega team honors in the Fraternity League; the winner in the Club League is Don Ybarreta's Merced Athletic Club, and Mr. Harkness' Bears placed first in the Frosh League. These three teams will meet each other this week in a round-robin tournament to determine the intramural touch football champion.

BASKETBALL

Intramural basketball play began this week for 17 teams entered in three leagues. All games will be played between 12 and 1 p. m. daily in the Men's Gym or on the outside basketball courts.

Club League play will be among Gene Bagnasco's Contra Costa Athletic Club, George Starn's East Bay AC; George Mona's Tee Pee AC, Don Ybarreta's Merced AC, Reynold's Rock AC, and George Suzdaleff's Industrial Arts AC. Club League manager is Oreece Elmore.

Fraternity League manager Tim Hammond will supervise competition among the following teams and managers: Alpha Phi Alpha (Fred Leonard), Delta Phi Gamma (Wm. Campbell), Kappa Omega (Larry Conover), Sigma Pi Sigma (Clair Parsh), and Alpha Zeta Sigma (Dan Logue).

Frosh League manager Larry Conover's teams and managers are Mr. Harkness' Bears, Dr. DeGhetaldi's Cobras, Mr. Kaufman's Eagles, Dr. Rowen's Rams, Mr. Bridgman's Lions, and Dr. DeGhetaldi's Tigers.

BOXING

John Barrie, intramural boxing manager, announced Monday that today, November 12, is the deadline for signing up boxers, teams, student coaches, and sponsoring organizations for intramural boxing since preliminary bouts begin November 16.

Barrie emphasized that all participants will be instructed from 2 to 5 p. m. daily by experienced student coaches under the supervision of boxing coach, Mr. Don DeMello, and that there will be three divisions—Novice, Junior and All-College.

By Monday morning of this week, 24 boxers, four sponsoring organizations and six student coaches had signed up for this event, and Barrie stated that he is expecting many more sign-ups before today's deadline.

GOLF

George Suzdaleff suggested last Monday that all students (and faculty) interested in competing in the coming intramural golf tournament which he manages should sign up soon. He stated that a handicap system to equalize competition will be used and that time and place of matches will be arranged for players' convenience. Further details and sign-up sheets are located on the Intramural Bulletin Board in the Men's Gym.

AUTHORESS TO READ SHAKESPEARE NOV. 19

Margaret Webster comes to San Francisco State College on Friday night, November 19, for "Readings From Shakespeare." Miss Webster will be presented in the S. F. State Main Auditorium at 8 p. m.

The daughter of stage and screen personality Dame May Whitty, Miss Webster has drawn her own fame as director, actress, and author in the theatre. She has been responsible for some 18 Shakespearean productions including "Richard III," and "Hamlet," which featured Maurice Evans, and "Twelfth Night" with Helen Hayes.

She also directed and acted in "Family Portrait," "The Devil's Disciple," "Alice in Wonderland" and "Saint Joan." She was co-founder, actress, and director of the American Repertory Theatre. She is author of "Shakespeare Without Tears" and is now engaged in writing an autobiography.

Newcomers Add Speed and Depth To 1955 Hoopsters

In preparation for their first go of the season against Moffett Field on December 3, State's varsity cagers have been practicing and, according to Coach Dan Farmer, improving steadily during the past two weeks.

According to Coach Farmer, the Purple and Gold is 25 per cent stronger now than it was at this point last year. This can be attributed to a the greater speed and added depth of this year's squad. With a host of new talent, there has been keen competition among the players for the various positions on the line-up.

Last year San Francisco State tied for the championship of the Far Western Conference with Chico State, and then lost the play-offs to the Wildcats.

Newcomers such as Gary Kenney, Ernest Browning, Bennett Mann, Norman Sou, William Short, Leon Freeman, and Charley Miller all are expected by S. F. State's coach to bolster the local cause.

Kenney has played his last three years for the Moffett Field Airmen. He is a guard and stands 6 feet 3 inches. Browning, an agile 5-foot 7-inch forward, hails from West Contra Costa J. C. where he played for two years.

Mann is a gigantic 6-foot 6-inch center who, despite previous lack of experience in the collegiate ranks, is eager to learn, and has shown considerable ability in practice.

Sou's experience includes varsity competition for George Washington High School and club teams. He is known as a quick shot artist.

Today is the last chance to have Senior and Organization Pictures taken in Hut T-3.

Cadets Defeat ROTC Officers

On November 4 the ROTC cadet officers defeated the officers of the staff in a close series of volleyball games by a score of 5 to 3.

The cadet officers included Bob Lacosta, Bill Dorffi, Pat O'Donnell, Ralph Kermoian, Jack Morgan, and Frank Verducci.

The officers team, although seriously handicapped by the loss of Sergeant Joe Baker, made a good showing. Playing good ball but outclassed in the clutch were Colonel Hardy, Major Truman, Captain Simonson, Captain Gentry, Sergeant Tyree, Sergeant Thornton, and Sergeant Pelton.

W. A. A. Presents Ethnic Dances

The W. A. A. will sponsor a group of ethnic dances of the Slavic countries on November 28 at 2 p. m. in the Concert Hall of Creative Arts building. The admission cost will be $1.

There will be 80 dances with authentic costumes and music. Among the many countries represented will be Bulgaria, Bosnia, Croatia, Czechoslovakia, Macedonia, Poland, and Russia. These authentic dances have been taught under the direction of Anatol Joukowsky and Yania Wassilieva.

Anyone wishing further information on the activity may see Carol Ghems, publication chairman of the W. A. A.

DECEMBER AND MAY: ACT I

Of all the creatures that inhabit the earth, none is so fair, so warm, so toothsome, as a coed.

This is a simple fact, well-known to every campus male, and, to most campus males, a source of rejoicing. But not to all. To some, the creamy brows and twinkling limbs of coeds are a bane and a burden. To whom? To professors, that's whom.

Professors, according to latest scientific advice, are human. Stick them and they bleed, pinch them and they hurt, ring a dinner bell and they salivate, confront them with a round young coed and their ears go back, even as yours and mine.

But, by and large, they contain themselves. After all, they are men of high principle and decorum, and besides, the board of regents has got stoolies all over. So, by and large, they contain themselves.

But not always. Every now and then a coed will come along who is just too gorgeous to resist, and a professor—his clutch worn out from years of struggle—will slip and fall. White though his hair, multitudinous though his degrees, Phi Beta Kappa though his key, he is as lovesick, moonstruck, and impaled as any freshman.

But he's far worse off than any freshman. After all, a freshman can thump his leg, put on his linen duster, and take out after the coed with mad abandon. But what can the poor smitten prof do? How, in his position, can he go courting a young girl undergraduate?

In this column and the next one, I am going to deal with this difficult question. I will relate to you, in the form of a two act play, an account of a professor's attempt to woo a coed.

The scene is a typical office in a typical liberal arts building on a typical campus. In this shabby setting, we find two men, Professors Twonkey and Phipps. They are lumpy and bent, in the manner of English lit professors.

PHIPPS: Twonkey, a terrible thing has happened to me. A terrible, ghastly thing! I've fallen in love with a coed.

TWONKEY: Now, now, that's not so terrible.

PHIPPS: Oh, but it is. Miss McFetridge—for that is her name—is a student, a girl of nineteen. How would her parents feel if they knew I was gawking at her and refusing my food and writing her name on frosty windowpanes with my fingernail?

TWONKEY: Come now, Phipps, no need to carry on so. You're not the first teacher to cast warm eyes at a coed, you know.

PHIPPS: You mean it's happened to you too?

TWONKEY: But of course. Many times.

PHIPPS: What did you do about it?

TWONKEY: Looked at their knees. It never fails, Phipps. No matter how pretty a girl is, her knees are bound to be knobby and bony and the least romantic of objects.

PHIPPS: Not Miss McFetridge's—for that is her name. They are soft and round and dimpled. Also pink.

TWONKEY: Really? Well, I'll tell you something, Phipps. If I ever found a girl with pink knees, I'd marry her.

PHIPPS: It is my fondest wish, but how can I, a professor of fifty, start a courtship with a girl of 19?

TWONKEY: Very simple. Ask her to come to your office for a conference late tomorrow afternoon. When she arrives, be urbane, be charming. Ask her to sit down. Give her a cigarette.

PHIPPS: A Philip Morris.

TWONKEY: But of course.

PHIPPS: I just wanted to be sure you mentioned the name. They're paying for this column.

TWONKEY: Give her a Philip Morris.

PHIPPS: That's right.

TWONKEY: Then light her Philip Morris and light one yourself. Say some frightfully witty things about English lit. Be gay. Be insouciant. Keep her laughing for an hour or so. Then look at your watch. Cry out in surprise that you had no idea it was this late. Insist on driving her home.

PHIPPS: Yes, yes?

TWONKEY: On the way home, drive past that movie house that shows French films. Stop your car, as though on a sudden impulse. Tell her that you've heard the movie was delightfully Gallic and naughty. Ask her if she'd like to see it.

PHIPPS: Yes, yes?

TWONKEY: After the movie, say to her in a jocular, offhand way that after such a fine French movie, the only logical thing would be a fine French dinner. Take her to a funny little place you know, with candles and checked tablecloths. Ply her with burgundy and Philip Morris. Be witty. Be gay. Be Gallic. . . . How can a nineteen year old girl resist such blandishments?

PHIPPS: Twonkey, you're a genius! This will be like shooting fish in a barrel. . . . But I wonder if it isn't taking unfair advantage of the poor little innocent.

TWONKEY: Nonsense, Phipps. All's fair in love and war.

PHIPPS: You're right, by George. I'll do it!

(So ends Act I. Next week, Act II)

Gators, Hornets Clash Here Tonight

DAVE KRUG'S

Sports Shots

The Far Western Conference football race has begun to take shape. Everything seems to be pointing towards the November 19 meeting of San Francisco State and the Chico State Wildcats. The long and bitter rivalry will decide the conference championship. The Golden Gators will also be trying to even the series. Chico now leads, eight victories to seven.

By comparative records, the game should be rated a "your-guess-is-as-good-as-mine" battle. Chico always plays its best against her arch-rivals. Last year, for instance, the favored San Franciscans bowed to the spirited Wildcats, 13-0. When the two clubs clashed at Cox Stadium, two years ago, the Gators won, 39-19.

CURRENTLY LEAD CONFERENCE

Chico and State currently ride the crest of the F.W.C. with identical 3-0 records. State has beaten Cal Aggies, 41-7; Nevada, 54-0, and Humboldt, 14-7. The Red and White has won over Nevada, 32-0; Sacramento, 40-0; and Humboldt, 18-7. The spirit should be at its peak as students of both schools are already looking forward to the fray, which is San Francisco's Homecoming game. Chico vs. the Gators, this is truly S. F. State's BIG GAME.

NEVADA-HUMBOLDT FIGHT IT OUT

Other than the two conference titans, the battle wages on for the lesser league places. The battle for third place will occur in the meeting between Nevada and Humboldt State. The Humboldt Lumberjacks, by virtue of better comparative scores, are generally accepted as the favorites. Cal Aggies has won what will probably be its only conference victory this year. The Aggies, who still must play Chico, defeated Sacramento, 14-0, in the battle for the cellar.

The Sacramento State Hornets have been playing their first year of football, and have found it a long, cold, hard one, to date. Unless the Green and Gold can upset San Francisco tonight, they are doomed for the cellar.

SOCCER TEAM SEES LIGHT

Coach Art Bridgman's soccer team shoved its way out of the cellar of the Northern California Soccer Conference by tying the Stanford Indians last week. San Jose State, one-time soccer powerhouse, now sit alone at the bottom of the heap. City College leads in the pennant race. Tomorrow, State meets USF, the defending champs of the circuit.

GATOR GOLFERS OF OLD

Golf competition at San Francisco State dates back to 1932. In that year, Coach Florence Hale organized a team for both men and women.

However, the first real golf team was not organized for another six years. The team was organized by Hal Martin, the coach, and Dave Schutz, a student, and the star of that first team. The team garnered a four win, two loss record. Since that date, golf has been a regular intercollegiate sport at S. F. State, with the exception of the war years.

WE'RE PROUD OF OUR TEAM

Three weeks ago, this column ran an article taken from Sport Magazine, in which many little colleges, including S. F. State, were saluted for the high calibre and non-pressure type of football they play. This brings to mind an observation Bill Stern once made about a certain school that does offer athletic scholarships.

The University of Tennessee imports many football players from Northern States. Their coach, General Bob Neyland, explained to Tennessee folks, "I admit it embarrasses me to win football games for Tennessee with boys from Pennsylvania and Ohio, but I would be even more embarrassed if we lost football games without them."

We are glad Joe Verducci does not have this type of problem.

Baby Gators Swamp Marin, 26-13

By LEROY PACINI

Riding on the crest of the most successful Junior Varsity football season in S. F. State history, Coach Dave Marcelli's Baby Gators handed College of Marin a 26-13 beating last week at Marin.

Now boasting a 4-1 season's record, the Baby Gators handled the Marin boys with ease, even though they had two 80-yard touchdown runs, one by fullback Levi Mason and the other by half John Sochor, called back because of penalties.

State struck first in the second quarter, and left the field at half-time with a precarious 7-6 lead.

The third quarter saw the game burst wide open with the fine offensive play of quarterback Ray Vallejo, halves Sochor, Gene Larson, Len Fernandes, end Joe Mulso and fullback Mason.

At the end of the third quarter, the Gators held a 20-6 lead and were able to coast thereafter.

Among the heroes were quarterback Ray Vallejo, who threw two TD passes, for 10 and 25 yards, to Mulso and Larson, respectively; Len Fernandez, who scored on a five-yard shot through the line; and Gene Larson, who also ran one over from 20 yards out.

Assistant Coach Floyd Gonella called the line play some of the best he's seen from the Baby Gators all year, and cited tackle Harry Athon, guard Norm Michaels and center Dan Unruh as the standouts.

Alligators Crush Humboldt State In Close Battle

By HANK CUNNINGHAM

State gridmen forged the third link in their perfect chain of league victories last Saturday night, when they slipped by a stubborn Humboldt State club, 14-7.

After crumbling before Gator power twice in the first period, the Lumberjacks mended their shattered defensive wall enough to stave off all further S. F. State scoring attempts.

The first touchdown came early in the game when the Purple and Gold launched a drive on the Humboldt 46-yard stripe. After a sustained march to within scoring distance, halfback Dick Nave smashed his way into the end zone for six points. Bob Rodrigo converted and the Gators led, 7-0.

Later in the quarter, guard Roy Nonella presented the State machine with another scoring opportunity when he recovered a Humboldt fumble on the Lumberjack 45-yard line. Again, after marching from midfield to the Humboldt 2-yard mark on a series of short drives, State pushed over. This time Bob Rodrigo was elected to do the honors. Rodrigo also kicked the extra point, thereby personally accounting for eight of the Gators' 14 points.

In the second quarter the Lumberjacks did a little chopping of their own. Starting from their own 49, the "Jacks" moved downfield to the Gator 11-yard line. On the next play Ralph Mayo passed to Bob Hughes for a TD. Dale Thomas converted for the Northerners and the scoring for the day was over.

Board Approves '55 Grid Slate

Schedules for the 1955 football and basketball seasons were planned and LeVell Holmes was named chairman of the Board of Athletic Control at the board's meeting on November 4.

Of interest to all students will be the Gator grid schedule for next year. The schedule includes one major change, that is the appearance of the University of Redlands Bulldogs from Southern California.

State will open its football season at home against Fresno State on September 23. On September 30, the Purple and Gold will play host to Nevada. Cal Aggies will invade San Francisco on October 7. On October 15, the big one with Chico will be played up north. The next game, October 21, will be played at Cox Stadium against Humboldt State. The Gators then take a three-week road trip invading San Diego State, Redlands, and Sacramento State. Homecoming will be on November 19 with the Cal Poly game featured.

State Matches 7-1 Record Against Winless Sacramento

Water Polo Team Nipped by Bears

San Francisco State's water polo team lost a close game to the California JV's in the local pool November 4 when the visitors pulled away in the fourth quarter to register a final score of 7 to 3. The local team tied the score three times during the game: at the end of the first quarter and the half, and again early in the fourth quarter.

Jules Voerg tallied twice for SFSC, and Maurice O'Roke scored once.

On November 5, the visiting California Maritime Academy was dumped by the Gators, 10 to 4, in the SFSC pool. Goals for San Francisco State were scored by Norman Cady, 4; Jules Voerg, 3; Maurice O'Roke, 2; and Samuel Citron, 1.

initial year of varsity football competition, Sacramento has yet to win a game, and should not offer much of an argument to a Joe Verducci crew that has been beaten this year only by powerful Cal Poly, number one ranking small college team in the nation last year.

Leading the Gator attack will be quarterback Hoot Ellis, who has already pitched for better than 500 yards; Little All-American end candidate George Wehner, second among the nation's small college pass receivers last year while snaring them for 49er quarterback Maury Duncan; and halfback Harry "The Horse" Bremmond, leading Gator ground gainer with close to 500 yards rushing, and dangerous on pass interceptions, kick-off and punt returns.

Other offensive standouts will be QB Dick Jackstadt, who
